Amazon's newly launched Prime Wardrobe lets buyers to have a week to consider whether to keep the goods they buy or send them back. Shipping is free both ways. Buyers can return 3-15 clothing and accessories at a time, likely including jewelry. There's a 10% price cut for buyers who keep 3 or more items, and 20% cut for those who keep five or more.

The service, only available to subscribers to Amazon Prime, is still in beta and not available in all areas.
