Shoppers spend more on every average trip at Harry Winston New York than any other jewelry retailer in the US, with an average receipt at $8,388 during the period July 2010 to June 2011, according to a report from Bundle.

The other jewelers on Bundle's list ranged from major chains like DeBeers in Manhattan, where shoppers spent an average of $4,625 per visit, to boutique retailers like William Noble Rare Jewelry in Dallas, where the average receipt was $5,839.

Some may be curious about why Tiffany is absent from the list. Some customers may walk out of the retailer with big ticket items, while others with items that cost as little as $150, bringing down the average, Bundle said.
